SUBJECT: Scheduling of [REDACTED] and Suggestions Re Preparation
25X1X7 of [REDACTED] Contributions

25X1X4

1. The subject of scheduling routine preparation of [REDACTED] so as to allow sufficient time for coordination and transmittal of EIC contributions has been discussed with appropriate personnel in [REDACTED] 25X1X7 It is agreed that, hereafter, you will be given 6 weeks notice of routine preparation or revision [REDACTED]. If, in this connection, you 25X1X4 wish to revise the tentative schedule contained in paragraph 3 of my letter of 24 October, will you please notify me of the dates by which I can expect your contributions?

25X1X4 25X1X4. It should be understood, of course, that notices of actual imminent [REDACTED] for which current briefs do not exist must receive much more expeditious handling. In some instances, [REDACTED] is able to give us 25X1A6a only short notice [REDACTED], and the time available for preparation of the brief is extremely limited. In such cases, it may be necessary to "hit only the high spots" in compiling the brief. I will give you as much notice as possible of the preparation of these high priority briefs, but cannot guarantee any minimum period of notification. In those cases where I recognize that the time deadline established [REDACTED] is so tight as to 25X1A6a preclude the possibility of incorporating [REDACTED] requirements, I would 25X1X7 like to be authorized to use my own judgment in representing EIC interests in the compilation of the brief.

3. A few suggestions regarding the [REDACTED] contributions may be in order here.
